

Trail Grants awarded by Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission

List of sponsors awarded funds for new trail-construction projects, by county (Dollar amounts are 80 percent of the project cost in an 80-20 matching grant):

- Atacosa County – City of Poteet’s Middle Camino Real Trail, $124,116 to install a 1.2-mile asphalt trail and wildlife viewing deck.
- Bexar County – Land Heritage Institute, $200,000, to build the new, 13.5-mile Los Caminos Naturales Mountain Bike and Equestrian Trail.
- Bexar County – Audubon Texas, $82,915, to build a 0.6-mile crushed aggregate trail and bridge, and install signs at the Mitchell Lake Audubon Center.
- Burnet County – City of Granite Shoals, $73,120, to construct a 2.1-mile crushed granite hike-and-bike trail.
- Childress County – City of Childress, $244,457, to make improvements to the city’s ATV & Moto Park, including the purchase of a track loader, fencing and lighting, and building comfort stations, a pole barn and dump station.
- Crockett – Texas Motorized Trail Coalition, $552,440, for the Escondido Draw OHV Area, including erosion control and utilities improvements, and the addition of storage buildings, restrooms and signs.
- Fort Bend – City of Sugar Land, $144,443, to build a new half-mile crushed granite trail and parking lot and install a water fountain and benches.
- Harris – Greater Houston Off-Road Bicycle Association, $36,120, to improve various mountain bike trails in Houston parks.
- Johnson – City of Cleburne, $182,642, to build the new 3.5-mile Byron Stewart Trail of concrete and natural materials, and install culverts.
- Lamar – Lamar County, $200,000, to construct a 3.18-mile extension of the Prairieland Recreational Trail and install bollards, bridges and signs.
- Lamar – City of Paris, $200,000, to build a 0.8-mile asphalt extension to the Central Paris Trail, and install culverts, road crossings and fencing.
- McCulloch – City of Brady, $200,000, to rebuild 1.3 miles of the flood-damaged Brady Creek Trail, bridges and parking lot.
- Midland – City of Midland, $150,000, to make improvements to Cole ATV Park, including building a restroom and parking area, and erecting fencing and signs.
- Nacogdoches – City of Nacogdoches, $167,101, to build the new 1.8-mile stabilized soil extension of Lanana Creek Trail, and add benches and a trail head.

- Polk – City of Onalaska, $23,500, to build the new half-mile Caney Creek Trail and bridge, and install benches, overlooks and signs.
- Smith – East Tyler Communities Foundation, $84,600, to construct the six-mile Faulkner Nature & Mountain Bike Trail, do a resource assessment and install culverts.
- Travis – Austin Parks Foundation, $14,623, to build the 0.15-mile crushed granite Montopolis Tributary Trail, and install benches, a picnic table and signs.
- Upshur – Texas Motorized Trail Coalition, $151,653, to make improvements to the Barnwell OHV Area, including erosion control and utilities upgrades, and the addition of storage buildings, restrooms and signs.
- Waller – Katie Prairie Conservancy, $200,000, to add a new 1.4-mile crushed granite and boardwalk extension to the Indiangrass Preserve Trail System, and install signs.
- Williamson – City of Georgetown, $200,000, to build the new concrete, 1.1-mile Georgetown Trail.
- Wise – City of Bridgeport, $87,079, to renovate existing trails and add fencing to the Northwest OHV Park and to purchase hand tools and a rescue vehicle.

Source: Texas Parks and Wildlife Department