Strategic Partnerships Inc. (SPI) President & CEO confirmed as a speaker at CG_LA's 2015 Global Infrastructure Leadership Forum in New York City

AUSTIN, TX (2/16/2015) - Mary Scott Nabers, president and CEO of Strategic Partnerships, Inc. and co-founder of the Gemini Global Group, has been confirmed as a speaker at CG_LA's 2015 Global Infrastructure Leadership Forum in New York City on Feb. 25-27.

Nabers will moderate an international panel with representatives from Brazil and the Philippines to discuss, "Global Public-Private Partnership Projects." Maria Eduarda Berto, managing director of Estruturadora Brasileira de Projetos (EBP) in Rio de Janeiro, will share insight on the public lighting in Belo Horizonte and underground parking project in Brazil. Cosette Canilao, undersecretary and executive director of the Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Center of the Philippines will offer her perspective on the Batangas-Manila Natural Gas Pipeline work. The panelists will also speak about public-private collaboration in Mexico's Highway San Cristobal-Palenque, Turkey's Adana Integrated Healthcare Campus and the United States' Indianapolis Justice Complex. The health care facility in Turkey is the country's first public-private partnership project.

CG_LA Infrastructure's mission is, "to support the doubling of global infrastructure investment by 2020." The organization achieves this mission through advisory and market intelligence services as well as hosting annual leadership forums. The 2015 forum later this month is CG_LA's eighth and the theme is "Build, Build, Build: Generating Global Economic Growth."

The Global Forum will connect global executives with specific project opportunities through presentations, developer meetings and interactive workshops. The 2015 conference expects more than 400 high-level executives from technology, engineering, and construction companies, investors, public officials and international project sponsors.
