

External Consultants

Strategic Partnerships, Inc. (SPI) seeks to enter into mutually beneficial partnerships with professional consultants through an External Consultant Contract. Strategic Partnerships, Inc. has a 20 year history of success and represents some of the world's largest government contractors.

The SPI Team will provide a strong support structure that includes decades of experience, research, opportunity identification, capture pursuit strategy, procurement expertise, messaging, communication, networking and advocacy. Our External Consultants add industry expertise, and/or local relationships to benefit clients in particular states. By effectively combining the skills, knowledge, relationships and technical expertise of both parties, clients are provided a competitive edge when pursuing government contracts.

What SPI Brings to the Partnership

The SPI Team provides the aforementioned support structure and the clients. External consultants work with the Texas based firm to meet a multitude of diverse client objectives. External consultants are a valuable member of client teams.

What External Consultants Bring to the Partnership

External Consultants bring industry expertise, local relationships, political guidance, strategy, advocacy and networking assistance.
