

Anne Marie Willsey

Anne Marie Willsey is responsible for managing the SPI offices and providing administrative support to all divisions of the firm. Before joining SPI, she spent more than 20 years in operations support, administrative assistance, and executive administrative support for employees at all levels, from entry-level to executive-level, in a variety of private-sector firms.

Anne Marie is usually the first point of contact when anyone contacts SPI. She understands all aspects of the company and knows exactly where to route a caller with questions, a prospective client, or someone requesting a meeting. Anne Marie is also a member of the SPI Communications Team and oversees various projects such as the legislative conference, client training sessions, and other SPI events.

Anne Marie holds a degree with an emphasis in business administration from Stephen F. Austin State University.
